Riverbank has been awarded EnviroDevelopment status from the Urban Development Institute of Australia after meeting rigorous assessment criteria in four categories – Water, Community, Ecosystems and Energy.

EnviroDevelopment is a scientifically-based branding system designed to make it easier for purchasers to recognise and, thereby, select more environmentally sustainable homes and lifestyles.

At Riverbank, drought-tolerant native trees are being planted to reduce water use and quickly establish an attractive street presence.

Riverbank will add an exciting new dimension to housing choices in the region and will become a model for best practice in sustainable urban design.
