

ESCAPE TO YOUR NATURAL HABITAT

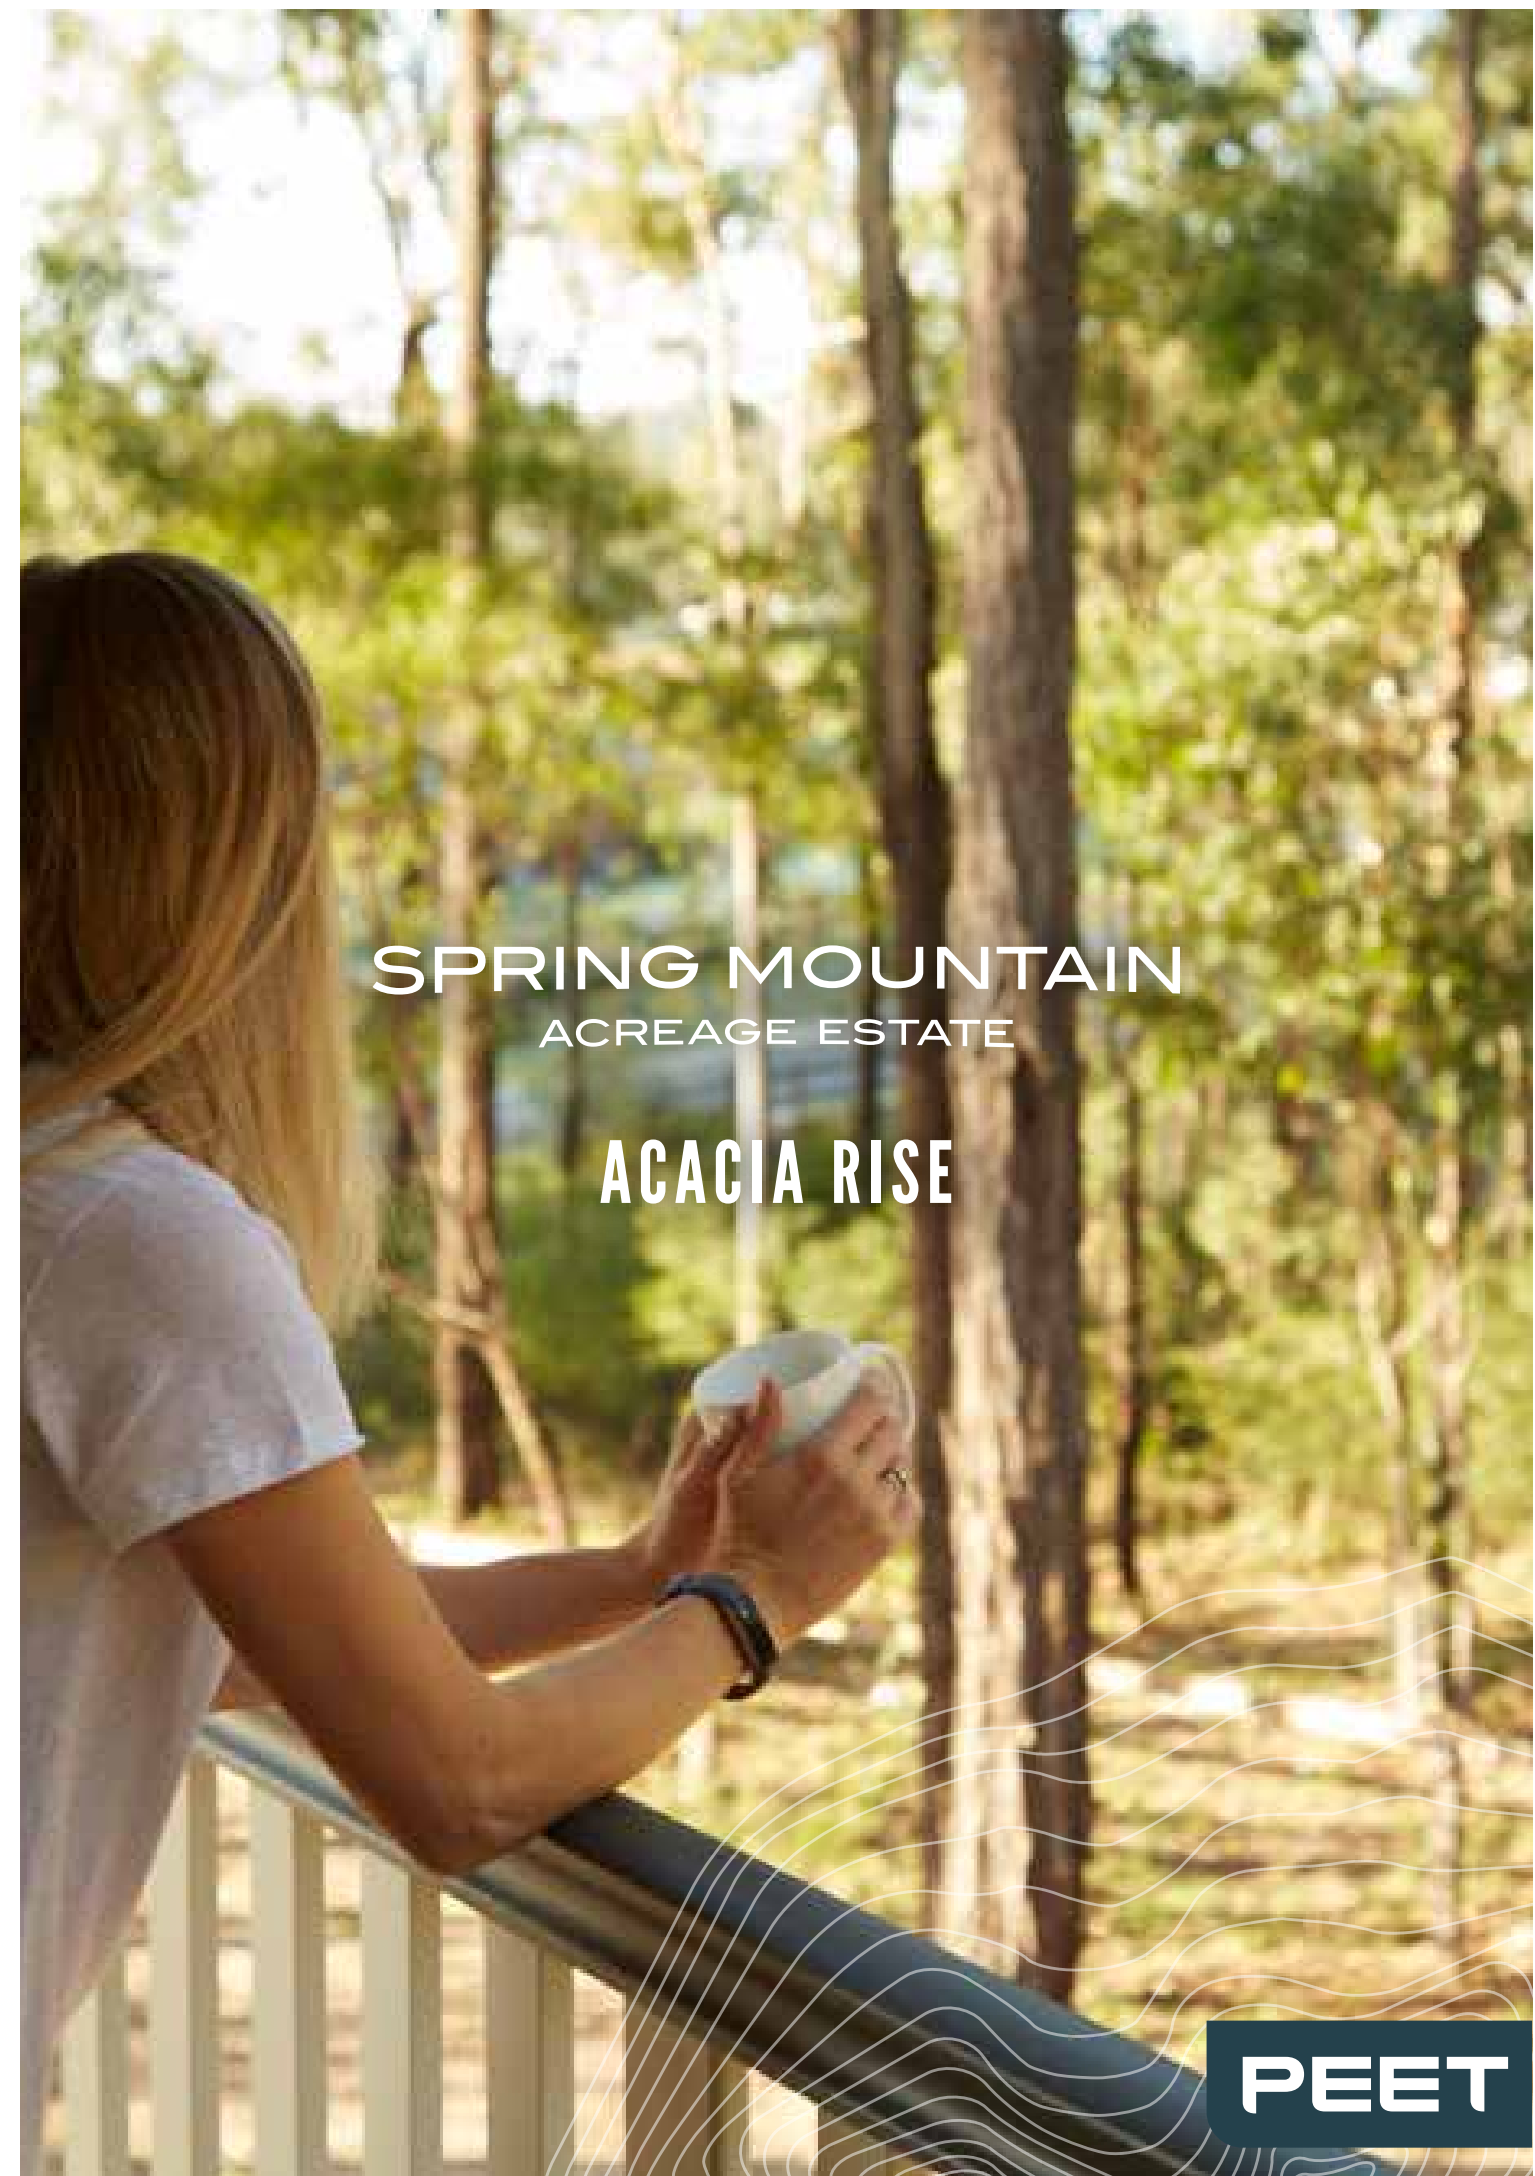

It's time to think big and escape to your natural habitat far beyond the stifling city landscape. At Spring Mountain Acreage Estate, you'll be surrounded by endless natural beauty, nestled amongst the mountains within the picturesque Greenbank countryside.

Life at Spring Mountain Acreage Estate will give you all the space you need to breathe and explore. Enjoy the many walking trails of the Spring Mountain Forest Park and White Rock Conservation Park, both right next door to your new community. Within the community itself, you'll also find a selection of local parks and an abundance of stunning retained natural bushland.

It's not just nature you'll be connected to, either. Everything you need is right on your doorstep, from a choice of schools, shopping centres, healthcare facilities, essential services and so much more. Plus, established transport links put you within a 45-minute drive of Brisbane.
