Lakelands wins prestigious industry award

Lakelands Estate has been named the best Masterplanned Development by the Urban Development Institute of Australia (UDIA), taking out the prestigious award at the UDIA (WA) Awards for Excellence.

This award acknowledges the holistic approach to community development at Lakelands Estate with the judges making particular note of the provision of "whole of life" housing options impressed by the integration of Latitude Lakelands over 55s lifestyle village within the community.

The coherent design and meticulous planning, as well as the inclusion of a wide variety of facilities and amenities within the natural environment were also applauded.

Lakelands Estate has now been put forward to contest the national awards, which will be announced in March next year.

A VERY doggy disco

A doggy disco was the winning concept from the inaugural Youth Hackathon event held earlier this year – with 19 young Lakelands residents (aged between 10 and 20) working alongside not-for-profit social enterprise Make Place to put on a silent disco with a difference.

The young organisers put on a great event which encouraged everyone to bring their pooches to the party at Black Swan Lake on Saturday 10 November!

Entry to the Doggy Disco was free, and guests were asked to complete a short survey created by the young residents to find out the opinions of other young people in the community.

The event was a great success, attracting 35 people, and their furry friends, with disco-goers enjoying dancing, sports, giant games and a barbecue!

In addition to Make Place, other project partners included Lakelands Estate, Lakelands Shopping Centre, Bendigo Bank, Lakelands Primary School and Mandurah Baptist College.

Ride for Telethon

Two Lakelands residents have proven you're never too young to do your bit for the community, with brothers Owen and Liam completing a 19.28km bike ride to raise $2,814.70 for Telethon!

After being a Princess Margaret Hospital patient when he was younger, Owen decided that raising money for Telethon would be a worthwhile cause – this is his second year undertaking the ride with Liam joining him on the road for the first time this year.

The boys set themselves a challenge with the ambitious target of doubling last year's figure of $1,000 raised, and with the support of Lakelands Estate and the community, they smashed that goal out of the park almost tripling last year's total.

Owen and Liam's mum, dad and twin cousins Ashleigh and Jordan joined them on the ride with their grandparents following as a 'support vehicle'. The ride stopped along the way at Owen's favourite beach and a family friend's home which had been decorated specially for the occasion.

Well done Liam and Owen!

Friends turned neighbours at Lattitude!

Residents at the award-winning over 55s lifestyle village, Lattitude Lakelands, have been making good use of Peet's referral program with many couples who were themselves referred paying it forward and referring their friends.

One such couple is Cathy and Richard Coventry who fell in love with Lattitude Lakelands after being referred by friends. The Coventry's couldn't keep all the fun to themselves and invited Gloria and Keith Atkinson to the party and now they are also enjoying the resort-style lifestyle Lattitude Lakelands has to offer.

"We've been here for four and a half months now. There is so much to do; we are throwing ourselves into everything. I love the fact that we are near the beach, the estuary and so close to the wonderful shopping centre. It ticks all the boxes."

"I also see Cath maybe three or four times a week. We go to aerobics together and we always see Cath and Richard at sundowners, Wednesday pub nights and poolside BBQs on Thursday nights," said Gloria.

Gloria and Keith Atkinson love their Lattitude lifestyle.

Development update

The Lakelands Community Choir at rehearsal

A passion for singing

The Lakelands Community Choir, which formed in June this year with only 20 members, has had a successful few months performing as part of the Intergenerational Activities Morning for Children's Book Week 2018, Alzheimer's WA Carers Week and at the Lakelands Library.

The choir now has more than 50 registered members who meet every Saturday morning to rehearse, followed by a chat over a coffee or tea and some biscuits.

Choir leader Cassandra Sweeny says it's amazing to be a part of such a gorgeous group of people of all different ages who have a love of singing in common.

"We get men, women, entire families... and grandparents too. The majority of members are between 40 and 65 but there's quite a few either side of that too," said Cassandra. "The group is incredibly diverse."

To find out how you can get involved, visit the Lakelands Library and Community Centre or call them on 9550 3835.

Calling all green thumbs

A group of keen Lakelands gardeners is in the process of forming a Lakelands Community Gardens Group with the aim of setting up a community garden space.

Chair of the working group and local resident, Michael Gorman, said that the group needs support from the community to be able to get a community garden space up and running in Lakelands.

"Gardening is such a great way to bring community members and neighbours together, so having a space we can all share would be a great addition for the Lakelands community," said Michael.
