Shorehaven's Waterfront Park

The Shorehaven difference.

THE SHORE CAFÉ: NOW OPEN!

Located right on the beachfront, it'll be the only one of its kind north of Mindarie. The café serves breakfast, lunch and dinner, with coffee roasted in-house.

SUBURB: ALKIMOS

A fast growing suburb with plans for future retail, commercial, transport and recreation. Living in Alkimos means Shorehaven is within the zoning of John Butler Primary School and Butler College, offering a greater choice of public education options.

FUTURE SUPERMARKET: WOOLWORTHS

The 3,200sqm full-range Woolworths will be located within the future Coastal Village Centre.

COASTAL VILLAGE CENTRE

Located 200m from the beach, the Coastal Village Centre will be the only beachside amenity in the region. It will ultimately boast a Woolworths, 14 specialty stores, cafés and restaurants.

WATERFRONT PARK: STAGE 1 COMPLETE

A truly unique amenity to the region, this 4-hectare park is located right on the water's edge – offering direct beach access. Stage 1 features BBQs, beach showers, ocean lookouts and large grassed terraces connecting to the sand.

DESIGN GUIDELINES: A TOUCH OF WHITE

To enhance the quality of the estate and complement the coastal surrounds, each Shorehaven home must contain a 'touch of white' in its colour scheme.

DID YOU KNOW?

The name 'Alkimos' comes from the Alkimos shipwreck, which was wrecked just off the coast in 1964. The wreck can be seen from Waterfront Park, and is a popular diving destination.
